EARLY CONFIRMATION OF JUDGE WILBUR SEEN

Opposition Expected in Senate; New Secretary May Attain to Supreme Court

BY ROBERT E. ARMSTRONG
(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

WASHINGTON, March 14.—Speedy confirmation of the nomination of Chief Justice Curtis Wilbur of California to be secretary of the Navy is expected and may be announced tomorrow and certainly not later than Monday. The formalizing of the name to the Senate was one of the first actions of the White House today and no delay or opposition is expected.

TELLS SHIP'S RUM SALES

Orduna Officer Testifies

Storekeeper Says Bar Never Closed and Bootleggers Were Supplied

Confiscation Trial Begins in New York; Million-Dollar Bond is Posted

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)

NEW YORK, March 14.—Trial of the government's suit for confiscation of the Royal Mail liner Orduna, seized Wednesday as a smuggler, began today with witnesses testifying that narcotics and liquor were sold freely each time the vessel reached the port, and that her owners shared the proceeds.

Champagne, whisky, medicines, beer, wine and drugs were dispensed to bootleggers by officers and crew of the Orduna, according to the testimony. The witnesses, including Federal agents and members of the crew declared the Orduna's bar never was closed a port. At the outset of the proceedings, E. B. Berwind, American and British coal operator and financier, posted a $1,000,000 bond so the Orduna might continue in trans-Atlantic passenger service. She is scheduled to sail for Hamburg tomorrow with 144 passengers.

Judge Wilbur has a very large number of naval and other official friends in Congress, and men in the Navy are anxious with the announcement.

WOOD AS CADET
He now Secretary of the Navy is graduate of the United States Academy at Annapolis, class of 1887. He followed his family to Pensacola, where he was educated in the Naval Academy and worked in the Navy and the Coast Guard. He has a large number of naval and other official friends in Congress, and men in the Navy are anxious with the announcement.

SAYS SEALS BROKEN
Charles Daws, the ship's storekeeper, and one of the seven members of her crew to plead guilty of illegally importing liquor, was the government's principal witness. He testified

Woman's Testimony Follows Blackmail Threat, Says Daugherty

MISS STINSON IS DENOUNCED

Attorney-General Points Out Motive in Attack

Says She is "Disappointed, Angry and Malicious"

Scored Attitude of Senator Wheeler in Inquiry

er, a member of the committee of investigation of the oil industry, who, in addition to his duties as judge, also designated as the prosecutor, left the city, proceeded to Columbus, O., and personally visited the offices of the office of the late Miss W. Smith, and for two days and a half, the publicity emanating from the investigating committee had consisted of—alleged conversations he related, said Roxie Stinson, to have taken place between herself and her divorced husband, the late Jess W. Smith.

"This gross, incompetent and malicious, has been heralded throughout the country in headlines as though it were competent evidence. Any inference, direct or indirect, that I ever participated in any way with the late Jess Stinson or anyone else for a consideration, monetary, political, or social, in any dishonest way in connection with the administration of the liquor laws, or any other law, is false and untrue, and while all the records I am able to command I resent the inference. And, if a positive charge should ever be made by any responsible body, now deny any truthfulness of such charge."

DEFENSES INFERENCES

"I positively know that I had no interest whatever with Col. Darden in his promotion of some western oil company and knew nothing about any such promotion and, therefore, on the part of Jess W. Smith. The inference, I attempted to be drawn from the statements of Miss Roxie Stinson that I, as Attorney-General of the United States or personally, was guilty to some extent in causing money out of violation of the law and permit the showing of prize-fight films contrary to law, is false and untrue."

Senator Wheeler has in his possession a full report of the activities of the Department of Justice showing that the law was enforced and enforced, and he also has a list of the names of those he has held since that time. The department is today releasing the full report for the first time.

"Certain statements made by Miss Roxie Stinson to the effect that there was a large amount of money from the East deposited in the bank at Washington, D. C., House as the result of my illegal connection with prizefight films is absolutely false. I had no connection therewith, directly or indirectly, except as an officer of the law strictly enforcing the same."

GOVERNMENT DEPOSIT

"As an illustration of the usual infraction which can be drawn from the statements by persons wishing to do so in it is perfectly apparent that this whole fabric of alleged illegal collections grows out of the simple fact that the alien property custodian of the United States, in order to have inactive funds is charged to and serving for the government a reasonable rate of interest, had at different times caused to be deposited certain sums of money in the name of my brother, in the name of which my brother is president of the Washington House, O., this being one of the banks, some $60 odd throughout the United States that were used as depositories for public funds. These money transfers had and would continue, drawing at a recent interest amounted at one time to $175,000. The amount now on deposit there is $100,000 secured by bonds with the approval of the alien property custodian and drawing 1 per cent."

"With reference to the information that the late Jess W. Smith was collecting money for his influence in securing pardons and in which I was interested, and with particular reference to a case in which Joe Weber of Webster Field, New York City, was interesting himself, we find that the case evidently referred to was that of Dr. Leopold Harris of New York City, who was found the Bureau of Investigation, a guilty of violating the Harrison Narcotics Act, July 22, 1919, and was sentenced to two years, but was granted a pardon, November 18, 1921, application for pardon was denied by President Harding on my recommendation and he served his full sentence.

NEVER APPROACHED

"I absolutely deny that the late Jess W. Smith ever approached me at any time for pardon, parole or commutation of sentence of any one and any such claim or inference is without basis of fact and absolutely false."

"With reference to the information that the late Jess W. Smith in some way obtained two thousand shares of White Motors stock for nothing and gave it to Roxie Stinson, his former wife, with the statement that cost us nothing by implication and induction implying that I was involved, this was a party to some transactions whereby certain shares of the White Motor stock were obtained, is almost unnecessary for me to deny, but I do deny, any such charge or inference. The statement that certain certificates of White Motor stock were obtained and being transferred without any name appearing on the front of the certificate is contrary to business transactions that it is worthy of any credence. No purchase would take it off a registrar or transfer agent would register a certificate of stock under those circumstances."

ASKS CHARGE FOR DEFENSE

"It is impossible for me to follow in outline the statements made by you, but I do deny any of your statements on the stand. I implicate me in any way, or reflect upon me, in my personal or official capacity. I deny the same to the same for the opportunity to present competent testimony in connection therewith. I know nothing whatever about the difficulty between Miss Roxie Stinson and the attorney, Mr. Jess W. Smith, and her divorced husband, over matters pertaining to the estate. The matter is in the courts and will be decided in them, and I have no interest in the matter, one way or another, and know nothing about it."

"On several occasions it has been intimated that I was ostentatiously acting for Miss Roxie Stinson for a consideration. Her silence could be purchased and any document in her possession could be delivered, all of which is deliberately and thoughtlessly at best, and have been absolutely and unconditionally rejected."

"When Means has concluded his story—it will receive our immediate attention."

LETTER MADE PUBLIC

The series of statements began with a copy of a letter received eight days ago from the U. S. attorney general, asking him to draw up an indictment against the late Jess W. Smith, the investigation was dated February 24, 1924, and an acknowledgment statement was made by the department said:

"Mr. Wheeler has had this letter and a report accompanying it. It would appear that he is attempting to implicate the Attorney-General with a plan to profit by the use and shipment of films which would fall and fail before this report public."

The letter follows:

"My dear Senator: In compliance with your request over the telephone for a list of Dempsey-Carpenter prize fight films cases which have been prosecuted to a conclusion, as well as of those in process of prosecution, I beg you to accept the enclosed copy of the report of the Attorney-General the information asked for by you so far as it is disclosed by the records of the department.

OTHER CASES PROBABLE

"Because of the methods adopted by those who were interested in the distribution of some of this film, making generally, the same occasion for the United States attorney to communicate with the department with respect thereto. For this reason it is deemed not necessary that there are other cases in which fines have been imposed of which the department has no record. The method of these people was for someone to approach the United States attorney and he had such a film and ask about exhibiting it. When told that there had been a violation of law in taking the film from the theater, the department did not hear of the case until after they had been disposed of in court. But, owing to the similarity of procedure followed by these interested persons, the department became convinced that it was the result of concerted action. After a conference with the director of

"With reference to the information that the late Jess W. Smith was collecting money for his influence in securing pardons and in which I was interested, and with particular reference to a case in which Joe Weber of Webster Field, New York City, was interesting himself, we find that the case evidently referred to was that of Dr. Leopold Harris of New York City, who was found the Bureau of Investigation, a circular letter was sent out to all special agents throughout the country instructing them to look for such violations and also with a view to securing evidence of a conspiracy. A copy of this circular letter is inclosed. The letter directed that the United States Attorney at Philadelphia, called the department's attention to certain circumstances in connection with the circular letter and that he was directed to make a thorough investigation of the accused, vigorous, and persons found guilty of transporting the Dempsey-Carpenter film.

PRISON TERMS ASKED

"As it had at that time been brought to the attention of the department that the courts were imposing only a fine which apparently was having no deterrent effect, the department concluded that it was necessary to recommend to the courts to impose a more drastic punishment, that there should be a sentence of imprisonment. The act prescribes a fine of not to exceed $10,000 or imprisonment for not less than one year or both." In the letter to the United States Attorney at Philadelphia, he was therefore requested in the event an indictment was returned in his district, and the defendant proposed to immediately inform the department so that it might delegate someone to appear specially for it. Subsequently upon receipt of advice as to when he would be available, an attorney from the department was directed to appear before the court and call its attention to the repeated violation of the law and the need of a prison sentence to cure the offense for which he was found guilty.

"The government is not an ell operator; but leases can be arranged so that private oil companies can get the right to sell their royalties, but everyone field seemed to offer good financial return. The case was that of Joe Griffis and the court fined the defendant $1000.

DETAILS EMPHASIZED

"As an opportunity has offered from time to time, the department has communicated to the United States attorneys in various parts of the country as its files show, emphasized its attitude regarding the vigorous prosecution of these conspiracies. There has been an extended investigation as to the substantive offense and a conspiracy in some instances and is still in progress with respect to not only the Dempsey-Carpenter film, but to the Willard-Dempsey, the Dempsey-Gibbons and the Dempsey-Firpo films. According to the operator, but leases can be arranged so that private oil companies can get the right to sell their royalties, but everyone

"There is only one thing in the way—Sinclair and his crowd. They have the same idea. I have Sinclair wants Fall for Secretary of the Interior. He is the only man I am afraid of; I think Doheny is back of him."

"But anyhow, Frank Ketch

(Ketch was Hamon's chief attendant in Ardmore) said and the master will be put up to Gen. Wood. I have the support of plenty of money, plenty of votes and plenty of influence and I don't care if it isn't over. You get in touch with me after the convention and I'll tell you just what to do."

"During the greater part of this conversation there was one of Hamon's friends in the room—I don't know which one it was; I didn't meet him—or if I did, I don't remember his name."

HAMON LOSES

"Anyhow that night went to Willard's Falls and Burkburnham and I didn't get back until after the convention was over and Hamon had come back to Ardmore. Of course I had read in the newspaper that Wood had been nominated. I wondered what was doing."

"Hamon loses," said Ketch.

"Copies of circulars of instruction sent by William J. Burns, director of the bureau of investigation, to agents of the eight-film prosecution from Atty.-Gen. Earl J. Davis to Senator Wheeler, Lee A. Dugard, and an anonymous state-

ONE UP SEVEN TIMES

The list of prosecutions showed the name of William H. Rudolph as having been arrested seven times in as many cities against whom cases had been brought. In eighteen of these cases fines averaging $900 were shown the aggregate amount ranging from $50 to $1000, the statutory maximum.

FRIEND PLEADS FOR PRESIDENT

Fellow Alumnus Speaks at Inglewood Club

H. P. Barbour Gives Record of Coolidge

Candidate for Delegate is on Program

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE

INGLEWOOD, March 14.—The qualifications of Calvin Coolidge as a candidate for re-election to the Presidency were urged here last night by Henry P. Barbour of Long Beach, president of the California Real Estate Association, from the standpoint of a personal friend and an alumnus of the same alma mater, Amherst College.

Personal association with the man as recounted by the speaker, gave assurance to his hearers that he believed in him. Speaking on foot in connection with Tom Deme and other scandals, it would fail to convince those who know this upright and fearless son of New England that he is in any manner implicated in such machinations.

In addition to the address by Mr. Barbour, who is also president of the College Cooling Project, Mrs. Mrs. Florence Collins Porter, candidate for delegate to the Republicans National Convention, made an able appeal for Mr. Coolidge, recounting incidents from her life and from the last national convention when the man who nominated him made the statement that now sounds like a prophecy, that "Calvin Coolidge would ably fill the Presidency chair if called upon to do so."

Eugene Robison, publisher of the Inglewood Californian and the Coolidge Republican Club of Inglewood, presided at the gathering and Fred E. Laxell, past commander of the American Legion post of this city, led the singing, which featured a number of hymns and familiar tunes. The meeting, attended by nearly 500, was held in Inglewood Hall.

SIX ARE CANDIDATES FOR BURBANK OFFICES

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE

BURBANK, March 14.—W. E. Smith has announced his willingness to become a candidate for City Treasurer at the April election. Charles H. Fisher, present Treasurer, is also a candidate. F. S. Webster is anxious to be made City Clerk again. John Nichols, C. E. Hams and E. J. Jackson are out to succeed themselves as members of the Board of Trustees.

TWO VIADUCTS URGED FOR BURBANK STREETS

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE

BURBANK, March 14.—The City Planning Commission is requesting the City Trustees to give consideration to the recommendation that viaducts be constructed over the railway tracks at Olive and Magnolia streets. The suggestion comes at this time because the railway company is about to accept plans for a pretentious new passenger station here and it is felt that the two improvements might well be worked out harmoniously together.

CROWN LINE TAKEN OVER BY PICKWICK

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE

ANAHEIM, March 14.—Operation of the Crown Stage Short Line to Los Angeles will be taken over Saturday by the Pickwick Stage Company, according to signs posted at their local Crown Stage offices today. W. B. Watson, proprietor of the Crown Stage Lines, will continue to operate the lines to Newport and Balboa, Huntington Beach, Santa Ana, Long Beach and Pasadena, with application for a stage-line franchise from Huntington Beach to Long Beach included in these plans.

HALTS ENACTING OF HOLD-UP

Attorney for Girl and Man Suspected of Taft Bank Robbery Protests Proposed Ordeal

EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH

BAKERSFIELD, March 14.—Attorney Jackson Mahon, retained by Eleanor Walker, pretty 20-year-old suspected bank robber, and W. A. "Bill" Crockett, also suspected of being one of the two bandits who yesterday held up the State Bank at Taft and escaped with $5700, refused to allow his clients to participate in the re-enactment of the hold-up.

The two suspects were taken to Taft from the jail here to stage the hold-up for the purpose of identifying the Taft girl and man as the Taft robbers. And Attorney Mahon were still disputing the re-enactment of the robbery. It had been planned to station the Taft residents, who yesterday saw the bandits leave the bank, in similar positions and to have the Walker girl and Crockett don masks and enact the hold-up.

LAUGHS AT POLICE

"Why do I have to go through this again and get my fingers all dirty?" she asked Lawson. "Why don't you send to Los Angeles and get my prints?"

Lawson asked her if she had ever been finger-printed any place other than Los Angeles. The girl laughed. "That's for you to find out," she said.

"Bill" Crockett also seemed at ease while being run the routine of identification bureaus. His brother, Clarence, appeared nervous.

The four prisoners have been kept incommunicado, being allowed to talk only with an attorney.

COAT TELLS MUTE STORY OF ROBBERY

Article Found in Rifled Home Leads to Discovery of Another Theft

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE

HUNTINGTON PARK, March 14.—Finding of a coat at his home Sunday night, following a robbery, Philip Bell of 439 Hood street notified the local police and an investigation was made by Officers Will Halquist and Fred Estell, which resulted in the discovery of another robbery committed by the same gang.

Mr. and Mrs. Bell, on returning home late at night, found that their home had been robbed of a fur cape, a string of pearl beads, a silver cigarette holder and other articles. A coat belonging to Mr. Bell was also missing and in its place was an old coat, evidently worn by the robber.

In this coat was found that it belonged to L. R. Zanakis of 3542 Wabash street, in the Boyle Heights territory. A visit was made to the Zanakis residence which brought out the fact that the Zanakis residence had been robbed on February 7 and that among the articles stolen was a coat, which he identified as the one having been found at the Bell home.

The police think that both robberies were committed by the same person.

SANTA FE PRESIDENT VIEWS IMPROVEMENTS

EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH

REDLANDS, March 14.—W. B. Storey, president of the Santa Fe Railroad, was in the city for a short time yesterday and while here spoke of improvements the company is planning. Railroads need to be left alone for a while, he said, railroads are ready to make moves to take care of a greater volume of business, but they do not need regulation by some 100 or so bills before Congress at this time, he added. Mr. Storey said the company plans to spend about $1,000,000 in this section this year, $400,000 in double tracking, something over $2,000,000 in expanding the shops at San Bernardino, and $2,000,000 in wages.

VALLEY VOTERS ARE URGED TO REGISTER

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE

VAN NUYS, March 14.—San Fernando Valley voters are making renewed efforts to have all electors properly registered for the spring elections since it has been announced that the Los Angeles city fire bond budget as proposed carries several items of much importance to all voters. The proposed budget includes $25,000 for a bungalow fire station in the valley. A like sum is to be expended for a similar purpose at Calhoun Park and Plaza Avenue. Laakeridge is also recognized in like manner. It is also San Fernando Road and Borwell street.

SEWER COST REVIEWED

San Fernando System Estimated Expense Follows Survey

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE

SAN FERNANDO, March 14.—According to estimates made following his survey, City Engineer Schwabland places the cost of the main trunk line sewer and disposal plant at $80,000. He says this will provide accommodations to care for the waste of a city of 50,000 inhabitants. The proposed trunk line will be the Foxman and Fox streets to Pacoima Wash, where it is proposed to locate an Imhoff tank to sufficient capacity to care for a population of 50,000.

The plant will be constructed with a view to eventually becoming a part of the San Fernando Valley extension of the Los Angeles sewer system. The estimated cost of the disposal plant is $22,000. The construction of the sewer system depends upon voters at the bond election in May.

EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH

REDLANDS, March 14.—Two hundred students of the colleges of Southern California gathered in this city today for the University of Redlands student conference which is being conducted at the First Methodist Church. James A. Francis, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Los Angeles, was the speaker at the opening session this evening. His talk was on "The Preparation for Leadership to all the young people of Southern California." Twenty-three years; O. H. Mayhew, eighteen years; George Spannberg, twelve years; William Gorbett, twelve years, and F. B. Selby, six years.

RANCHER OF ANAHEIM OUT FOR CITY COUNCIL

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE

VENICE, March 14.—John H. Cook, rancher and prominently identified with the civic advancement of Anaheim, has filed his petition for election to the City Council. The petition was filed yesterday afternoon and contained the following names: Adolph Thomas, J. N. White, Harry H. Kennedy, W. E. Hellins, and Armstrong. Oscar Renner, proprietor of a local department store, yesterday withdrew his name as candidate for election to City Council, disclaiming the right to mix business and politics and that he had already undertaken work which will occupy a large share of his time in the industrial development of Anaheim.

The proposed extension of the boundary plan to take the road in a line diagonally south of Gardena Canal and south to join the diagonal highway that is to follow Nigger Slough drainage canal to Long Beach, where it will connect with the network of Canfield roads. It is planned to have the extension of the boulevard 100 feet in width.

Many local property owners are affected in the extension plans and when the matter comes before the City Council it will be laid before them and the plans examined.

1917 Total 8500Yale Expert Takes Part in Committee's Quiz

(BY A. P. MORTY WIRE)
WASHINGTON, March 14.—More than 8500 income-tax return cases of 1917 still are awaiting settlement in the Internal Revenue Bureau, the select Senate committee investigating the administration of that bureau was told today by Commissioner David H. Blair. About 8000 of these cases of seven years ago have been audited, Mr. Blair said, and are awaiting settlement—but the rest have not even been audited. He predicted, however, the bureau's work would be current within another year.

Commissioner Blair and several of his assistants were before the committee practically all day giving evidence as to the present status of the government's income-tax operations. Prof. Thomas J. Adams of Yale was present as an expert adviser to the committee and conducted much of the questioning.

"There has been a tremendous whispering campaign against the bureau," Senator King, Democrat, Utah, said in opening the session. "It will be interesting to see what the Commissioner has to say about it." Commissioner, to have all the charges brought into the light."

"I agree heartily with that," said Mr. Blair. "He added that a former 15,000 cases were found to find a certain proportion of criminals and the bureau has sixty-six service men at work" with full success among its employees.

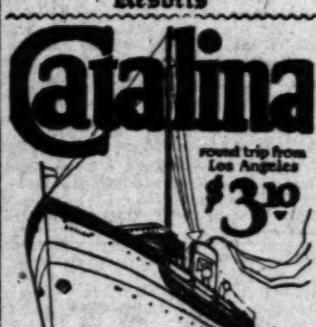

Blair denied there had been any campaign of intimidation by which taxpayers were suddenly notified of a large extra assessment and then were offered a compromise.

The committee adjourned, late until Monday.

MISTAKEN IDEA LEADS TO SUICIDE

Alien Station Chief for Honolulu Takes His Life for Fancied Wrong

(BY C. A. MORTY WIRE)
HONOLULU, March 14.—A mistaken belief that his handling of the affairs of the Honolulu Immigration Station was under fire apparently was the cause which last night drove R. L. Halsey, chief of the station, to kill himself, it developed today. Halsey was a former minister and had several university degrees.

Halsey's body with throat cut and a vegetable knife clutching in one hand, was found today in a bushes a road near the city. He was a member of the Princeton class of 1878.

Sweeping changes in the personnel of the immigration service are expected to follow the recent here of Commissioner of Immigration W. V. Hubbard, now on his way to Hawaii from San Francisco. A new interpreter has been named. Harry Brown, inspector at Honolulu for several years, will be transferred to San Francisco.

The committee, after working two different and gauge of men, has chosen H. L. Blair, who was present as an expert adviser to the committee and conducted much of the questioning.

"There has been a tremendous whispering campaign against the bureau," Senator King, Democrat, Utah, said in opening the session. "It will be interesting to see what the Commissioner has to say about it."

He commented ante una comisión del Senado la encuesta de las gestiones de la oficina de la renta interior.

Los oradores de su gabinete han pedido tarifas de flete más bajas a la comisión del comercio entre estados.

La comisión petrolera del Señado aplazó sus audiencias hasta el próximo martes, cuando se reúne en el Congreso.

Curtis D. Wilbur, de California, fue nombrado Ministro de Marina y Hugh Gibson, Ministro en Suiza. El Ministro de Marina ha propuesto una modificación en la que se pregunta a la Secretaría de Estado qué sabe sobre el nuevo embajador francés.

"I agree heartily with that," said Mr. Blair. He added that a former 15,000 cases were found to find a certain proportion of criminals and the bureau has sixty-six service men at work" with full success among its employees.

Blair denied there had been any campaign of intimidation by which taxpayers were suddenly notified of a large extra assessment and then were offered a compromise.

The committee adjourned, late until Monday.

(FLORENCE FLORENCE)

FLORENCE, March 14.—The Navajo Indians are natural gardeners, according to Warder R. Sims of the State penitentiary. He has put his Navajo prisoners out on the prison garden farm, where, he says, they develop a superlative cleverness.

"I am not rebelling," he continued, "I have found them industrious, as well as intelligent."

Mr. Sims takes special pride in caniflowers he has been raising.

One, sent to Phoenix, weighed 35 pounds and another, sent by the Phoenix Chamber of Commerce to its Los Angeles office, weighed 40 pounds.

The vegetables and flowers have been done by the Navajo Indians.

Mr. Sims, who has been doing work for the Navajo Indians.

He is the first to admit that the Navajo Indians are not the best workers in the world.

He is, however, very pleased with the results obtained.

LADY ASTOR LAUDS LABOR GOVERNMENT

(NY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS)
PLYMOUTH (Eng.) March 14.—Tribute was paid to the Labor Government today by Lady Astor in a speech at a luncheon given by the Mayor. "Look at the present government, the way they have buckled to and played the part of England first," she said. "I think it is very well. We must give the devil his due.
In these days of transition and unrest in the world the small party spirit is not big enough. I think the government has realized it and we ought to be proud of it."

DELANEY FINISHES BERLENBACH IN FOURTH ROUND OF NEW YORK BOUT

EVERY ANNEXES SENIOR TITLE

By A. P. NIGHT WIRE
NEW YORK, March 14.—The proposed return heavyweight title match between Jack Dempsey and Tom Gibbons, which Tex Rickard planned to stage in the Metropolitan district early in June, was called off tonight by the promoter after a conference with Jack Kearns, the champion's manager.

Abandonment of the bout, forecast several days ago, was due to a motion-picture contract which Dempsey has accepted and which will keep him busy until some time in July.

This development makes it virtually certain that Dempsey will risk his title only once this year and that probably in a return bout with Luis Angel Firpo here in September. The time to be consumed by Dempsey's movie work would preclude his preparation for a fight before then.

By CHARLES WEST
A new set of Pacific Coast champions were crowned at the Midway Country Club, the 1924 model heroes, all of whom have more than fifty candles on their birthday cakes, finishing in the final round of play in a fourth annual event.

J. H. Avery goes the largest gong, as he won the title of Class D, including players 65 and over. He eliminated E. W. Martin 3 and 2, to win the most points of the four titles up for competition.

Hart and J. S. Perry staged interesting match for the Class C championship. Martin finally won on the home green, 2 up.

W. Yerushalay, who captured Class B title last year, lost to any of the others in 1923 but none met defeat in the finals of Class C yesterday.

The hands of F. W. Kohler, who beat him 1 and 1, Class C individual, in a long struggle.

Martin 3, Martin 2, S. K. Staged an interesting match for the Class B championship, the two men playing evenly and over 50 under par.

Final results follow:

Many Feminine Golf Celebrities Enter Play for Southern California Championship

SCORES TREK TO SAN DIEGO

Nationally Famous Players Enter Tournament

Miss Cummings, Miss Hollins, Mrs. Hutchings to Play

Strong Competition Looms in Title Golf Event

EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH, SAN DIEGO, March 14.—With approximately 150 players competing, the Southern California women's golf championship will open Monday morning on the San Diego Country Club course at Chula Vista, the first players being scheduled to leave the tee at 8 a.m.

Among the more prominent golfers entered are some of present and former champions, who make competition exciting throughout the tournament. Mrs. Luther Kennett, who won the Southern California title for the second time in a row, and Mrs. Mandale, will have to wade through opposition furnished by such players as Miss Edith Cummings, national champion; Miss Marian Hollins, state champion; Mrs. H. G. Hutchings, former Pacific Northwest champion; Miss Doreen Kavanaugh, State title holder; Miss Margaret Cameron, Miss Browne and Mrs. W. C. Van Antwerp, if she is to win the title another year.

Players expected from Los Angeles include Mrs. G. M. Midgley, Mrs. H. H. Hartman, Mrs. Guy Cochran, Mrs. F. S. Hardin, George Weber, Miss Louise Pike and Mrs. Dan Jones, in addition to Miss Kavanaugh, Miss Browne and Mrs. Cameron.

Mrs. Kennedy is at the top of her game and is expected to offer spirited competition to the visiting stars. Women golf enthusiasts recall the noted competition which between Mrs. Mandale and Mrs. Doreen Kavanaugh over the Annandale course last year, when Mrs. Kennedy won the title.

With the exception of golf that the above stars have played during the last few weeks it is difficult to predict just who will be the favorite. The San Diego course is very fast at this time, the fairways being hard and the short grass add many yards to drives, with the result that low scores may be expected.

PASADENA GOLF OPENS TUESDAY

Morgan, W. O. Hedley, Charles Ward, Otto Hoyt, R. A. O'Brien, W. P. Smith, George Craig, Jr., O. Williams, Harry Thompson, J. R. McKeown, and W. R. Heneker.

Willie Hunter, George Von Min, Fred Wright and other scratch and low handicap players may play though the qualifying round is still on. They will probably follow their usual custom of entering at the tee.

HOTEL TOURNEY

A two-half foursome event was held by the Hotel Huntington for its guests yesterday at the Pasadena Golf Club. Henry Clark and Dave Simmons winning the tourney, while Joseph Byfield and H. L. Phillips took second honor. A large number of players took part.

NEW CLUB OPENS
The Oakmont Country Club, located on Verdugo Road, north of Glendale, held its formal opening this evening when members and their guests gathered in the recently completed clubhouse for a social function befitting the occasion. The building is modern in every respect, including plenty of locker rooms, tennis courts, and facilities for all these sports being provided.

The club was organized in August, 1922, but work was not commenced until January, 1923. Work on the building was done by the beautiful English type structure is complete in every detail. The links, however, will not be ready for several months. Max Behr laid out the course, which gives promise of being a splendid one when finished.

Harry E. Hall has been elected president of the club, while Roy L. Kent will assist him as vice-president. A. R. Eastman fills the office of secretary-treasurer, and Harry Eliason is house manager.

GRIFFITH PARK

Mrs. Roy Green won the weekly Maxine trophy tournament at Griffith Park, a spindly 54 and a winning net score of 84 with the aid of a 12-stroke handicap. Mrs. William Gill took second place, 118-24-94. She tied with Mrs. George Harris, who scored 104-12-94, but won in the play-off yesterday.

GRAYS TRIM WHITES AT OAKLAND CAMP

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)

MYRTLEDALE HOT SPRINGS, March 14.—Home run by Lepoint and coon and a triple by Arlett, threatening to send Arlett, pitching for the Gray Oaks, to the showers early this afternoon. He recovered, however, and for the remainder of the five innings his pitch was unbreakable. Incidentally the Gray Oaks won from the Whites, 8 to 5.

The feature was the hitting of Johnston, who got three blows.

The score: R. H. E. White Oaks ..... 5 12 3 Grays ..... 8 11 3 Batteries: Tuna, Harris, Baker and McDonald; Arlett, Foster, Marquis and Read.

WARES SIGNS BOOKIE

EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH

HANFORD, March 14.—Perry Wares has signed up to new tryouts for Hanford Kings uniforms during the coming league season. They are Clarence McCauley and G. A. Clarence, recently married, and Master, the latter having been in the United States Army and played in the all-star Army baseball and football teams. They were here with recommendations by the athletic directors of the Oakland team of the Coast League.

POMONA CRUSHES OXY

Tiger Racket Teasers are Routed and Squashed by Cyclonic Sagehens; Blow Championship

With Palmer, Boles and Creighton playing off form, the Occidental tennis team lost their chance for a conference championship, yesterday, when Pomona defeated them 5 to 1 at Occidental. This is the first match won by the Tiger team this season.

The Southern Branch takes the lead in the conference with five games won and none lost, and if the Bengals do not turn the unexpected and beat them next week SH.U.C. will have the championship. If the Tigers should pull the trick, the result will be a three-cornered tie between Occidental, Pomona and the Branch, each with five matches won and one lost. This does not look probable, however, as S.B.U.C. defeated the Sagehens last week by a score of 5 to 2.

PLAY WELL
The Sagehens played a good consistent game against the Bengals yesterday. Palmer and Boles playing first doubles were beaten by Peterson and Gobbers of Pomona in a hard-fought, three-set match. The steady game put up by the visitors proved too much for the flustered game turned out by the Tiger men.

In the second doubles, Finnell and Raymond of the Eagle Rock institution fought the three fast and skillful hands of the Branch. Again the steady game put up by the Clarendon college proved a waterloo for the Oxy men.

Palmer as first man for Oxy was kept from playing to his full ability by a hand-wrenched arch which troubled him after his playing. Garbett is a player of rare ability and the defeat he administered to Palme goes to prove his excellence.

FINNELL THERE
Finnell as third man for the home team came through with the goods in splendid form, taking down the hot court much faster than between Mrs. Mandale and Mrs. Doreen Kavanaugh over the Annandale course last year, when Mrs. Kennedy won the title.

With the exception of golf that the above stars have played during the last few weeks it is difficult to predict just who will be the favorite. The San Diego course is very fast at this time, the fairways being hard and the short grass add many yards to drives, with the result that low scores may be expected.

HOGDAHL READY FOR DE PALMA

Speed Demons Agree on Terms for Match Race at Ascot Tomorrow

With Charlie Keppen, referee, and George Bentel, promoter, acting as arbiters, Ralph De Palma and Si Haugdahl emerged from a three-hour session last night about the terms of the long-delayed battle over the details of their match race, which will be contested at Ascot Speedway tomorrow afternoon.

The ten-lap heats will be run, irrespective of whether the drivers are in the first or last heat. The drivers will race in a straight auto racing style, with flying starts prevailing. One will be of Australian pursuit style, the drivers driving from opposite ends of the track to the starting stand, and attempting to overtake each other in the ten laps, the one gaining the most distance being named winner in the event of his being unable to reach the finish.

The pair will take position for the coveted pole position in the first heat. The winner of the first heat will yield the pole position to the vanguard in the second heat. The Australian pursuit heat will require no pole drawing. Excessive smoke from the exhausts will subject the offender to immediate disqualification without opportunity for redress.

The quadruple Captainair motorcycle mountain-climb event will prove about the most sensational two-wheel motor classic ever run, said John O'Connor of the M.A.T.A. The race will be run in six heats, each taken to participate in the start race over the four-peal course, starting and finishing in front of the grand stand.

The speed races for motorcyclists will be conducted with Johnson, Seymour, Gene Walker and Ralph Hepburn ruling as favorites. Hepburn is booked on almost a sure winner of the side-car race. In the first event, the automobiles will be speed races for motorcyclists, with Duran, Fred Horne and Paul Lecklider as having the best chance to grab the Horn's share of the coin, and the Beverly Hills homesite which is being hung in the Melvin Hall sweepstakes.

Paul Derkum will start the races.

PROVIDENCE AND NEW BEDFORD JOIN THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION FOOTBALL LEAGUE NEXT SEASON

Providence and New Bedford will join the American Association football league next season. This will mean four New England clubs in the tourney, which is made up of New York, Philadelphia, Newark, Brooklyn and Bethlehem.

Harvard is building fifteen new tennis courts. A total of sixty-five are now in use.

OUR 1924 OLYMPIC TEAM

BY BOYD COMSTOCK

Coach Cyrus, Tulsa H. S. Native, champion 1915-16, University of Southern California, Coast champion 1918-19, Redwood Valley, University 1922, Author A. G. Spalding's new series of Track

One of our eastern experts in commenting on the athletic situation recently made this statement: "That the problem of rounding up a team formidable enough to uphold the supremacy of the United States in track and field should be the least of the American Olympic Committee's worries."

Last year, Perry Novak of Finland made three new world's records and all of them displaced records set by others.

The Americans' record in the 100-meter dash was 3m. 55s. The former record held by Zander of Great Britain in 4m. 14.5s. Shields, our best collegiate champion, was third in this race.

Arnold Stutz started the game in a dead heat with the Brits, running a screaming triple down the first-base line. He scored a moment later on Heathcote's infield out. Grimes was retired, but when Heathcote struck out, he hit a pitched ball the fans thought. Walter was done for. Hack Miller couldn't do better than a line to Gunther, who seemed right at home, went up in the air and the Square circled the bases amid considerable applause.

PASSED UP CHANCE

The Angels had a nice chance to score in the ninth, but Bigbee got a single infield and went to second where Grimes threw wildly to E. Jacobs, who was covering first on the play. Gunther went out. Vogel to Grimes, Bigbee gone.

Then the Brits had a hit to Maxor Buffam of Long Beach. His Honor was supported by a complete team made up of his Councilmen, but this didn't stop Squire Du Re, who got the bat, from hitting a hit to Abrahams.

Wright passed the ball to Maxor Buffam of Long Beach. His Honor was supported by a complete team made up of his Councilmen, but this didn't stop Squire Du Re, who got the bat, from hitting a hit to Abrahams.

FAILS TO PLACE
Ray did not place in that event, although he must be admitted that he was not in the best of physical condition at the time. Shubbard, however, was in fine campaign performance.

It must be admitted that we have a brave array of track and field team in the program there can be little doubt that the colleges can be as good as the amateurs, but the record of lower road meets in the past shows that the amateurs are as good as the national's athletic strength when the time arrives.

A PREDICTION
This is an interesting statement, because it is the first out-and-out optimistic prediction that has been published since the last Antwerp games. The greater variety of our experts seems to have a less universal attitude, ranging from a non-committal statement of facts to the dark gray outlook of the confirmed pessimist.

The opening statement is unquestionable based on real home side performances, but there is no real basis for such a broad prediction.

It must be admitted that we have a brave array of track and field team in the program there can be little doubt that the colleges can be as good as the amateurs, but the record of lower road meets in the past shows that the amateurs are as good as the national's athletic strength when the time arrives.

LIKES SITUATION
The same situation holds good in the 10,000-meters run. Nurmi won the event in the last Olympics and he is practically certain to repeat his victory this summer. All the other four Americans have a chance to succeed. How this and Abraham's fourth. The situation might easily be changed but this rating appears to be a fair one.

It might be explained that America chiefly interests itself in getting together the lion's share of first places rather than merely establishing a point superiority.

The eastern writer called attention to Verne Booth's 9:42-mile and to Engle's 4:24 mile. Both performances stand out as high

EIGHTH-INNING RALLY RESULTS IN FOUR TALLIES

JOHNNY WALTERS GOES FULL ROUTE FOR WINNERS

EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH BY BRAVEN DYER

LONG BEACH, March 14.—The Los Angeles Coast League baseball team dedicated the new Recreation Park in a fitting manner here this afternoon by scoring a 6-to-2 victory over the Chicago National League club. Something over 4,000 cash customers attended the gala opening, but counting the town Councilmen, the band, the two teams and the numerous eucalyptus trees, it was estimated that more than 5,000 witnessed the downfall of the Cub.

It was a volley of hits in the eighth inning that won the game for the Seraphs, three doubles and one single putting four runs over the rubber. The Seraphs had the ball over the left center, and Hack Miller was fishing he was lighter of foot and tunny before the inning was over.

Johnny Walters, recruit pitcher, was the hero of the afternoon's entertainment. Coming into the game with a 1-0 record, he had a 10-0 lead. The game was a walk-off victory for the Seraphs.

The game, which was an all-out affair, was won by the Seraphs.

The Seraphs will play the Chicago team again on Saturday afternoon.

"Hey!" yelled Earl Beach, veteran customs inspector, to the little man struggling down the gangplank of the Manchurian, his arms piled with luggage while behind him trudged a large woman and nine youngsters of varying ages. "Come back here while I look you over."

"What have I done, officer?" inquired the little man.

"I don't know yet," replied Beach, as he was going through the pile of luggage. "But I want to find out why this crowd is following you."

Voluntarily the little man explained that he was only Frederick Hakim, a Brooklyn kimono manufacturer. He and his wife and family were only the wife and family coming out to California to live. This was Alice, the oldest and 16 years of age, while away down the line there was Vivian, the baby, 1 year of age.

"I am bringing them out to California to grow," Mr. Inspector, the head of the house of Hakim told Beach.

The men are going to settle in Fresno, he said, explaining that he believes that city one of the best places in the West to build kimono and raise a family.

For the last two years the rooms on the Manchurian were required to house the Hakim menage during the trip from New York which terminated in Los Angeles last night.

Other notable passengers arriving on the 27,000-ton flagship of the Panama-Pacific Line were Dr. W. K. Chung, president of the American Chinese College at Honolulu; Elbert Hubbard, Jr. and Mrs. Hubbard; Ward B. Jackson, Cleveland sportsman, and Mrs. Jackson.

PLAN CURB OF I. W. W. AT HARBOR

Abatement Proceedings Against Wobblies' Hall Will be Asked

Abatement proceedings by the District Attorney against the I.W.W. Hall and against the Communists' Hall, where thirty-nine alleged radicals were arrested on the 12th inst., will be asked by Capt. W. L. Hagenbaugh, of the harbor police division, he announced last night. Permanent closing of these places for the purposes they are being used will be asked.

Children taken in the raid, ranging from 6 to 16 years of age, have been released but the grown members and several hundred pounds of radical literature have been taken to police headquarters.

The literature reveals works by Karl Marx, Jay Lovestone, English Socialist, and by Rose Luxemburg, who have been used as text books to teach radical doctrines to the young. "Revolution in Evolution," is one of the milder editions with which the children are now armed to have been selected. Red songs were said to be almost a nightly occurrence.

The hall is situated in the blind end of a building at 725½ Palos Verdes Street, just above Harbor, the front end of which is occupied by stores concealing the meeting place.

Credit Men to Have Escort to Gathering Here

Four members of the Los Angeles Wholesale Credit Men's Association will leave Monday for San Francisco to act as escors for the delegation of more than 100 men from the northern city, who will attend the annual convention here Wednesday and Thursday.

President Albert F. Stephan, Secretary Edgar L. Ide, Fred B. McComas and W. F. Grether are those who will accompany the Francisco delegation on the air mail bound trip. The delegates will arrive here by Southern Pacific train Wednesday morning.

J. H. Tregow, secretary-treasurer of the local organization, will be included in the party. He has been touring the West, with the Los Angeles convention as his objective point. The San Franciscans will be headed by C. C. Beck, president and will have with them A. J. Goldfarb, president of the national association, whose home is in the Bay City.

Other delegations from Fresno, Sacramento, Stockton, San Jose and San Diego will also be present. They are expected to be entertained Tuesday night at the Gamut Club auditorium, where a special vaudeville show has been arranged by H. E. Bremner, entertainment chairman.

BOOKINGS PROMISED

Winners at the professional tryout tomorrow night at the Winter Garden will be given bookings on a California theatrical circuit. It was announced yesterday. These two girls are to be weekly features. Tuesday night the winner of the dancing contest will be given a far jaquette instead of the usual loving cup.

Other notable passengers arriving on the 27,000-ton flagship of the Panama-Pacific Line were Dr. W. K. Chung, president of the American Chinese College at Honolulu; Elbert Hubbard, Jr. and Mrs. Hubbard; Ward B. Jackson, Cleveland sportsman, and Mrs. Jackson.

PLAN CURB OF I. W. W. AT HARBOR

Abatement Proceedings Against Wobblies' Hall Will be Asked

Abatement proceedings by the District Attorney against the I.W.W. Hall and against the Communists' Hall, where thirty-nine alleged radicals were arrested on the 12th inst., will be asked by Capt. W. L. Hagenbaugh, of the harbor police division, he announced last night. Permanent closing of these places for the purposes they are being used will be asked.

Children taken in the raid, ranging from 6 to 16 years of age, have been released but the grown members and several hundred pounds of radical literature have been taken to police headquarters.

The literature reveals works by Karl Marx, Jay Lovestone, English Socialist, and by Rose Luxemburg, who have been used as text books to teach radical doctrines to the young. "Revolution in Evolution," is one of the milder editions with which the children are now armed to have been selected. Red songs were said to be almost a nightly occurrence.

The hall is situated in the blind end of a building at 725½ Palos Verdes Street, just above Harbor, the front end of which is occupied by stores concealing the meeting place.

Credit Men to Have Escort to Gathering Here

Four members of the Los Angeles Wholesale Credit Men's Association will leave Monday for San Francisco to act as escors for the delegation of more than 100 men from the northern city, who will attend the annual convention here Wednesday and Thursday.

President Albert F. Stephan, Secretary Edgar L. Ide, Fred B. McComas and W. F. Grether are those who will accompany the Francisco delegation on the air mail bound trip. The delegates will arrive here by Southern Pacific train Wednesday morning.

J. H. Tregow, secretary-treasurer of the local organization, will be included in the party. He has been touring the West, with the Los Angeles convention as his objective point. The San Franciscans will be headed by C. C. Beck, president and will have with them A. J. Goldfarb, president of the national association, whose home is in the Bay City.

Other delegations from Fresno, Sacramento, Stockton, San Jose and San Diego will also be present. They are expected to be entertained Tuesday night at the Gamut Club auditorium, where a special vaudeville show has been arranged by H. E. Bremner, entertainment chairman.

BOOKINGS PROMISED

Winners at the professional tryout tomorrow night at the Winter Garden will be given bookings on a California theatrical circuit. It was announced yesterday. These two girls are to be weekly features. Tuesday night the winner of the dancing contest will be given a far jaquette instead of the usual loving cup.

KIMONO MAN AND FAMILY OF TEN HERE

Moves Plant to Fresno from Brooklyn; Hubbard Also Arrives

Illustration of Picture Page

"Hey!" yelled Earl Beach, veteran customs inspector, to the little man struggling down the gangplank of the Manchurian, his arms piled with luggage while behind him trudged a large woman and nine youngsters of varying ages. "Come back here while I look you over."

"What have I done, officer?" inquired the little man.

"I don't know yet," replied Beach, as he was going through the pile of luggage. "But I want to find out why this crowd is following you."

Voluntarily the little man explained that he was only Frederick Hakim, a Brooklyn kimono manufacturer. He and his wife and family were only the wife and family coming out to California to live. This was Alice, the oldest and 16 years of age, while away down the line there was Vivian, the baby, 1 year of age.

"I am bringing them out to California to grow," Mr. Inspector, the head of the house of Hakim told Beach.

The men are going to settle in Fresno, he said, explaining that he believes that city one of the best places in the West to build kimono and raise a family.

For the last two years the rooms on the Manchurian were required to house the Hakim menage during the trip from New York which terminated in Los Angeles last night.

SHAKE-UP HITS
HARBOR BOARDTwo Persons Dismissed in ReorganizationJ. G. Starr is Successor to Guy W. WadeOther Shifts to be Made by
New President

A shake-up of the employees of the Harbor Department was started yesterday by President C. J. Colden with the approval of Commissioners Kibbe and Allen. Those who were dismissed are Guy W. Wade, for many years secretary of the board, and Philip Warner, who had been acting as assistant to former president Edgar McKee, who was ousted by Mayor Cryer. J. G. Starr, collector of harbor revenues, was promoted to the secretary of the board made vacant by the dismissal of Guy W. Wade. J. Henry Wood, a well-known public accountant, was appointed controller of the harbor department from the chamber of commerce. Also dismissed was Philip A. Warner, who had been acting as an assistant to former President Edgar McKee, who was removed by Major Cryer, was dismissed by the board yesterday.

WADE IN FIFTEEN YEARS

The dismissal of Secretary Wade, who has been controller of the harbor department for fifteen years, came as a complete surprise at the close of yesterday's meeting of the board. This position had been dispensed with by President Colden, said he had a few recommendations to make and started off with the removal of former President McKee's assistant, Warner. This was approved by the commissioners, and then came the appointment of Wood as controller at a salary of $4,000 a year. This position has not been filled in several months, the work having been done by Chief Clerk R. L. Maxwell. The dismissal of Secretary Wade followed, and was approved and then came the appointment of J. G. Starr as secretary.

At the meeting President Colden said:

"The changes made in the organization mark the beginning of our efforts to place the harbor on a strictly business and efficient basis. During my service as commissioner I came to realize that a number of changes of personnel must be made if the department were to function as a successful business branch of the government, and to enable it to efficiently administer the harbor for the people. There may be other changes as we shall go down the line through the entire department."

CHANGE ABRUPT

Secretary Wade said that the first he had heard of impending changes was when President Colden asked for his resignation. Secretary Wade said that he intended to give it at the close of yesterday's meeting, as the diamond ring first given to him by his wife was returned to him by the new secretary of the board, who will assume his duties on March 24, is a graduate of the Hollywood High School and studied law at the law school of the Southern California Bar Association.

During the War he served with the marines, and since 1920 has been attached to the harbor department as senior clerk, credit investigator and collector of harbor taxes. He is the new controller of the board, has been a public accountant in Los Angeles since 1908, and has audited the accounts of banks, railroads and other corporations. In 1918 he was elected by the county grand jury to make a survey of the county departments.

PILING BIDS REJECTED

On account of the troubles which came to the board under the regime of McKee relative to the awarding of contracts for piling, the board yesterday, under President Colden, rejected all pending bids for piling, and ordered the Harbor Engineer

Pound Fare and Ancient Manger Almost Prove Undoing of Jobless "Old Pogey"

It's hard to say just what the future would have held in store for poor old Pogey, away backed and dirty white equine, if axes and saws were not a part of the regular equipment of the Long Beach police department.

For it was to these implements, plus the brawn and prompt action of two policemen, that Pogey owed his life yesterday.

AMONG JOBLESS

Pogey, who like many another Long Beacher, is temporarily out of employment, was wandering about in the vicinity of Daisy avenue and Fourteenth street yesterday when Mounted Officer George Lopez spied him. There followed a trip to the city pound where Pogey was incarcerated, a makeshift shack boasting the rather misleading name of stable, being his jail.

Seattle and San Francisco both charmed her, she said, through her husband as interpreter. But it is the Southland that she is enamored of now, in a beautiful home in Hollywood, she lives. Arrangements have been completed and next Sunday will see the Irish linguist and his Japanese wife settled in their new home in the new world.

SKULL IS FRACTURED

Prof. Gibbs, 37 years of age, of 558 South Fremont avenue, employed by the Cudahy Packing Company as a helper on a truck, fell off his truck at the intersection of Main and 5th streets yesterday and suffered a fractured skull. He was removed to the Receiving Hospital.

Resemblance is Noted

The two photographs at the top are of Bluebeard Watson (left) notorious wife slayer, captured in Los Angeles four years ago; and of Josephine R. Lansit, confessed dynamite bomb murder plotter, awaiting trial. The photographs show the striking similarity of features and general resemblance of the two men. The documents reproduced at the lower right show an inventory of money he gave his wife, his diamond ring, his wedding permit, while at the bottom is a photograph of Mrs. Josephine Lansit, his wife, with one of her valuable Pekinese dogs. The dogs were to have been chloroformed, and the wife and her relatives blown to bits by dynamite.

WIFE HAPPY IN SECURITY

Mrs. Lansit Finds Place as Vigil of Fear Ends With Arrest of Mate Who Planned Death

"I slept last night for the first time in a week. It is all over now and I am happy again." This is what Mrs. Josephine Lansit said yesterday morning as she set about putting her business affairs in order before leaving the city for a quiet health resort where she will stay to forget Joseph Lansit, her husband, now in the County Jail charged with having planned to kill her with a dynamite bomb.

"Everything is very plain to me now," said Mrs. Lansit. "I can now see how my husband first was attracted to me because I had a small fortune. He swept me off my feet with his whirlwind courtship. It was not me that he loved, but my money."

"When we were first married we lived in a house I owned on the intersection of West Adams and Hillcrest avenue. I tried to make a happy home for my husband, but shortly after we moved into our new home my maid left. She told me that she feared my husband. That is the only reason she left in my eyes. I thought that the girl was crazy. Then I walked into his bedroom and heard him discussing with some of his friends how much money he had. He could count it. I became frightened and from then on began to watch him."

FELT LIFE IN DANGER

As the months went by things went from bad to worse. There was no doubt in my mind that my life was in danger. I didn't know which way to turn or what to do.

CAUGHT IN MANGER

Like the shack itself, the manger was of a questionable character and so well did Pogey address himself to the food that his head and long, drooping ears became entangled in the thing.

Neigh, first of astonishment and then of rage, from Pogey, brought help an hour or two later and Officers Harris and Payne, with a sharp ax, cut the manger and the manger and a goodly portion of the stable before Pogey could breathe freely again. Dirty-gray horses do not get blue in the face, nor do they turn pale, but Pogey revealed all the symptoms of choking that any animal would have when the officers finally rescued him.

PONDERS LOVE AND HATE

Gray Figure of Bomb Plotter Talks Unconcernedly of Dynamite and His Wife as Gaze Wanders

Joseph J. Lansit sat in the County Jail yesterday afternoon and talked calmly about dynamite and his love for his wife. Mrs. Josephine Lansit, his wife, was behind bars for plotting to blow up her husband.

Incidentally, he says he is at peace with the world. He does not deny he hired Frederick Tate, carefree Canadian and expert on explosives, to blow up his wife.

DIDN'T WANT MONEY

"I guess it was because I loved her so. We just could not get along together and could not get along without each other. I know we could not, anyhow. But then, I've been a damn fool all my life," he said.

"How about money? Did she ask you to support her?"

"I gave her all I had."

"Did you want her money?"

"Now, I don't know if I have food down my stomach. That's why I have to carry this rubber tube around with me. And that was not poison. That was my medicine, I really quieted him."

He was referring to a packet of bluish powder found in his possession at the time of the arrest. Mrs. Lansit told the arresting officers she was poisoned by Lansit some weeks ago.

PLOTTER URGES QUICK JUSTICE

Lanzit Willing to Accept His Fate in Court

Tells Conflicting Stories of Murderous Plans

Remains Unperturbed by His Arrest at Home

again Sunday night. Talked to her who said she had been home.

Under the date of February 1, 1924, less than one month after the wedding Lanzit wrote:

"I left Saturday evening to go downtown and she told me to get out and stay out."

ASKED OF WEALTH

After Mrs. Lanzit produced the various documents which had been kept by her husband she informed the investigating officers that before he had come to Los Angeles he had been asked many questions regarding her personal holdings of real estate and her bank balance.

At the time of his questions she gave little thought to the matter and only recently after she discovered the hidden papers that she began to realize that he had been laying his plans from the very beginning to do away with her.

Efforts will be made today by deputy sheriffs to locate a hidden safe which is believed to be listed to Lanzit under a fictitious name in one of the downtown banks. If the box can be found the officers believe that additional documents bearing on the case will be brought to light.

He called himself of his plot to dynamite his wife, his mother-in-law, his brother-in-law and their two costly homes in Venice. He confessed several times to the deputy attorney and newspapermen that he had extracted portions of his statements and at other times denied almost all of his confessions.

TAKE IN SHACKLED

The aged dynamiter—Lanzit is 62 years of age—was taken to the courtroom, shackled to Deputy Sheriff Shuler, one of his captors, in connection with his confinement with his attorney.

An attempt was made to reduce the $22,000 bail to $10,000. Deputy Sheriff Shuler objected to a reduction. He explained to the court that Lanzit was caught while in the act of placing over a six-inch time bomb containing three sticks of dynamite and that if Lanzit had not been captured at the time he probably would have been responsible a few hours later for the killing of several people and causing considerable property damage.

The court also was reminded of Lanzit's repeated statements that, if arrested for his crime, he would commit suicide. At reduction of the bail, he was denied the defendant.

"Will you go buttin' into that ball affair?" Lanzit said to Deputy Sheriff Shuler as they left the courtroom. "Do you think I'm going to get out and try to kill somebody again?"

Tate told him he would do the bomb so she would be unable to hear it ticking. He would wrap the clock in wool and cotton so that it could not be heard.

"I want you to get my wife," Lanzit said he would. Later, he told Lanzit he had seen Mrs. Lanzit, her mother and her brother at the barbecue inn on Wednesday evening.

"They were all there last night in a bunch," said Lanzit. "That would have been a good time to get them all."

"You think it would be best to get the bomb," Tate asked.

"Get the whole—bunch," Lanzit exclaimed.

TO STIFLE SOUND

"Will my wife hear the ticks of the clock?" Lanzit asked, when the plans for the placing of the bomb were completed.

Tate told him he would do the bomb so she would be unable to hear it ticking. He would wrap the clock in wool and cotton so that it could not be heard.

Lanzit says he must be 62. Mrs. Lanzit says he must be 62.

He planned to blow up his bank and his wife, his mother and his brother.

Tate said he would. Later, he told Lanzit he had seen Mrs. Lanzit, her mother and her brother at the barbecue inn on Wednesday evening.

"They were all there last night in a bunch," said Lanzit. "That would have been a good time to get them all."

"You think it would be best to get the bomb," Tate asked.

"Get the whole—bunch," Lanzit exclaimed.

NEW PHONE BOOK READY

Great Increase in Size Bears Evidence of Growth of Los Angeles

Evidence of the rapid growth of Los Angeles as a metropolitan center is supplied by the 340,000 new red-bound directories, delivery of which was started yesterday by the Southern California Telephone Company. There will be 80,000 more of the new directories than were issued a year ago.

Some idea of the size of the task of printing the new directory, which contains a total of 1943 pages, as compared with 812 a year ago, is indicated by the fact that 1,300,000 pounds of paper will be required. It will be necessary for the directory press which turns out 220,000 pages an hour, to operate twenty-four hours a day for forty-eight days to complete the job.

The ten new prefix additions and the many thousand number changes will require more clerical work than was ever necessary for any other telephone directory on the Pacific Coast.

The total number of listings in the new directory will be 1,000,000. The big book will be distributed to all telephone patrons before the 20th inst., at which time the new metropolitan method of simplified dialing will go into effect.

The new directory has a red binding and this glaring color was adopted by the company officials for a specific purpose.

On March 20, the system will change over to the metropolitan method. Ten new office names as prefixes will be adopted to dispense with the exaggeration of numbers.

It will no longer be necessary to dial the "0" operator on machine switching phones to secure a manual number. Many of the six-figure numbers will be changed and it will be necessary only to dial the first two letters of the office name and four numerals.

The red covering is a reminder to the subscriber that he must be put into use until the morning of the 20th inst., and also a reminder that after that date the old metropolitan directory is obsolete.

The new book with more than 900 pages and its edition of 340,000 is the largest register ever printed west of Chicago.

boys—Frederick and Charles Lanzit.

"They're good boys," he said flatly. "Hers was hoping she would make a good mother to them. But we fought all the time. She made me jealous."

Charles Lanzit says you planned to blow him up with a bomb and murder his family to get her money. What do you say about that?"

"I wanted to kill her. But I was crazy. You don't care what happened to me," he said.

Charles Lanzit says he is to blame. She was paying no attention to him. I think he is a Federal agent or something. He used to come in the place and I made me mad."

"The dynamiter has given the officers the information of his plot to dynamite his wife, his mother-in-law, his brother-in-law and their two costly homes in Venice. He confessed several times to the deputy attorney and newspapermen that he had extracted portions of his statements and at other times denied almost all of his confessions.

TRYING TO KISS HER

"Why did you try to get your wife into a side room at the Royale Barbecue Thursday night just before she left and just before the bomb arrived?"

"I was trying to kiss her good-by," said Lanzit.

There seemed to be nothing more that he could say. As he sat in the Sheriff's car after his arrest and just as he looked when the coffee boiled while he was leaving on what might have proved to be his last trip.

There was a long silence. Finally Lanzit broke it with a smile.

"That's been done many times," he said. "But I didn't really intend letting that bomb go. I did not want to place it there but he brought it to me and we put it against the bed-room walls."

BEEN A DAMN FOOL

"Didn't you go back to the store and get some more matches to see where the bomb could be placed. The officers watched you working on the bomb in the dark?" Lanzit was asked.

"The Englishman told me to get more matches, so I did."

"And didn't you take him to the beach at Venice and show him the breakwater and the sand and the wall fronting the house through which he could climb and get under the house and place the bomb?"

"Yes," said Lanzit.

"I never loved Joseph Lanzit. I married him because I didn't believe that he would be a kind friend and companion to me. He fooled and betrayed me and almost caused my death. I hope that he can never harm anyone else."

Mrs. Lanzit told the authorities that she was married to her first husband when she was 17 years of age. In New York she was a widow. She married again several years later, this time to a young New Yorker having a chance meeting on a boat. Her second husband, whom she divorced in 1921, is now deceased.

RMS AND THE WOMAN

An Iowa man struck his wife so hard on the head with his clenched fist that he broke his arm. Serve him right for marrying a bonyhead.

WORD ON WHEELS

There are now 20,000,000 motor vehicles in the world and one man is virtually responsible for one-third of them. We have forgotten his name for the moment, but it begins with Henry. Of the world total more than three-quarters are in use in America. That is why we are going some.

IN THE BULLETPROOF

Senator Moses might have been beaten as a New Hampshire delegate to the Republican convention. He was a very pale pink tail on the end of the ticket and had been definite opposition he would have been beaten. This was because, while declaring himself for Coolidge, he declined to pledge undying fealty to the President.

The other delegates were very firm in their allegiance and admitted no second choice.

MAKE IT UNAMBIGUOUS

MA A poll of the preachers of San Francisco shows that 204 out of 278 favor the election of Calvin Coolidge and will vote and possibly work to that end. It also found that 253 of the 278 stand for the World Court and full participation therein on the part of America. They are not halfhearted about it. They are, in fact, in-istent and they indicate little patience with the politicians who are embarrassing

the progress of world amity by their tri-filing processes.

COURT COSTUMES

One reason why they are getting away from the court costumes at official functions at the British capital is that a snappy outfit—complete in every detail—will tap the roll for about $700. While this seems a trifling sum for a perfect lady, it is a heap of money for a man to pay for a suit of clothes. The average Briton will rather leave the money and spare the King his presence. England will do quite a presentable democracy when the average citizen may wade into Buckingham Palace wearing a $12 suit of clothes.

KEEPING THE COUNT

The compilers of the city directory solemnly assure us that the population of Los Angeles is 1,160,111—or at least was until the Sunset Limited rolled in today.

That swelled the total by seven at least.

The directory folk are keen counters, but the trouble is that they have included several noisy citizens who have business in the city, but whose homes are in Glendale —and therefore absolutely uncounted to any definite Los Angeles connection. Out

Glendale way they swear they never will surrender to big city blandishments.

PEANUT POLITICS

President Coolidge explained to Congress that the condition of the nation's finances justified an immediate reduction of 25 per cent—a reduction that should apply to taxes now due. But the Senators and Representatives are too deeply involved in the intricacies of peanut politics to give attention to so puny a matter as cutting taxes.

Why should the taxpayer wish for any reduction when, for almost the same money, he can get a long and costly investigation of the rumors that John D. Rockefeller had a shirt washed at the Chinese

Embassy?

BILBOARDS AND SCENERY

It has been announced that the Standard Oil Company will put the muffer on its billboard advertising. The Pacific Coast

States are famous for their scenery and fine roads and the Standard folks have been brought to the belief that it is bad business to clutter up the scenery with gasoline signs suggesting nothing but gasoline.

It isn't necessary from a publicity standpoint. Everybody knows that the Standard has a couple of wells still on production.

The policy of the Standard, so far as the Western States are concerned, will be no billboards except in commercial zones.

THE BEAR STILL SNARLS

The recent conference in Rome sought to bring about a further reduction in the naval armaments of small nations. There are still plenty of warships to handle all the police business of the world and some governments would be wise in clipping down their sea strength. According to his advice, the conference at Rome provided no definite agreements, but it did indicate a possibility of better understandings between powers. Russia was admitted to the conference—not because she was a small power, but because she has a small navy and it was Russia that furnished the harsh notes of the gathering. The Russian representatives declared their right to have as big a navy as Great Britain, and their purpose to have dominion over the Black and Baltic seas. They spoke with arro-ganze and rather left the impression that if Russia really had the arms and money

she would seek to conquer the world by force.

Until there is a distinct change in leadership the Russian government is not it for white folks to play with.

THE GOOSE AND THE EGG
Six years ago Lenin and Trotzky proposed as a great international reform driving capital out of industry. According to the soviet dogma, capital was not a creator of wealth, but of poverty. In place of contributing to the human welfare it was a breeding ground for crime and misery. So they expelled capital and capitalists from Russia; and fanatical dreamers in many countries waited with bated breath to see Russia bloom as a garden.

That dream has ended. The falsity of the soviet dogma, "a country without capital will be a country without crime," has been fully proved. For five years Russia has been the most lawless of all the countries of the earth, although suffering from a multiplicity of laws.

Russia is now painfully struggling to entice capital back. The Russians have learned that a country without capital is a country without employment. They have discovered that the so-called capitalist system is the only one under which life in modern communities is tolerable. They know that profitable employment is necessary for the preservation of a race, and that a group of men cannot receive pay for their labor until an employer is found who can so organize a business as to make enough from the things produced to fill the pay envelopes. How primary, how self-evident it is that for some one to receive wages some one else must be able to pay wages! And yet how many there were who denied this elementary proposition of economics.

Capital is as necessary to industry as raw material. And on what is the so-called capitalist system based? On the right of private property, on the right of possession to what one legally acquires, on the right to a part of the fruits of one's labor and industry.

Experience has demonstrated countless times that what is everybody's business is nobody's business. And it is equally true that what is everybody's property is nobody's property. When everybody owns everything, nobody owns anything. Repeatedly has it been demonstrated that possession is an absolute essential to individual initiative; and it is an individual initiative that modern civilization is builded and sustained.

There is no more dangerous practice than driving capital out of business, out of industry. Much of the liquid capital remaining in Germany after the war was exported, in the vain hope of escaping reparations payments. Germany is now paying the price. In this country some billions of capital and credit were driven out of industry through imposing excessive surtaxes. The intent of these taxes was to make the so-called rich pay the cost of the war. But the actual effect was disastrous; it increased the price of the necessities of life and caused men of great wealth to invest their money in nontaxable securities.

Congress is now reducing the surtaxes in hope of enticing capital back into the industries that give employment to large groups of men and women. But more than that must be done: the regulation of the industries must not be so drastic as to offer no incentive to profitable investment.

Capital must be regulated, but not criminalized. Employees must learn that the interest of the employer is equally their own, that before they can receive a living wage the business must earn a living wage. Every employee in industry must be paid by the thing that he produces. It must be produced at a cost that will enable the employer to market it at a profit; else there can be no business, and no employment.

When the French entered the Ruhr they followed a natural impulse to "make Germany pay," but they made a mistake of penalizing the very industries which must operate at a profit before Germany can pay. One of the results was the rapid decline of the exchange value of the French franc. They grasped the sword, only to find that the hilt was as sharp as the blade.

Despite the jibes one frequently hears regarding the woman driver, she is seldom responsible for fatal accidents. In San Francisco the ratio was ninety-two men against five women drivers of death cars.

And when it comes to the matter of pedestraining, the fair sex has it all over the male, sixty-nine men being killed against thirty-six of the feminine persuasion. And this in a year when longer skirts were the fashion. The bump of caution seems to be more pronounced on the female head than on her brother's, which is probably the reason that, though there are more males at the beginning of life's race, at the finish there is a much larger number of elderly widowers.

WOMEN'S WORK
Once, not many years ago, when a complaining wife bemoaned the fact that "man works from sun to sun, while woman's work is never done," her weary husband retorted that if she'd compare the business methods of men and women she'd see the reason why.

Well, women seem to have been doing that very thing in recent years, for now it is no longer true that women's work is never done. The modern kitchen is arranged as scientifically as the modern business office. The modern laundry-room requires only the occasional pressing of a button and a little supervision and its apparatus does all the work. The dishes have been taught to wash and dry themselves.

The stoves are being trained to turn themselves off at the desired moment, so that one needn't hang feverishly over them all the time to prevent a burning. The library and guest room have disappeared from the average home and, now that the automobile is the most often-used room of the establishment, the house needs little straightening up. And the breakfast nook is slowly but surely beginning to shove the dining-room toward the discard in all the homes of bantamweight financial standing.

Women, like men, are, in fact, getting their business down to such a system that they are worrying about their superfluous flesh and taking up golf for exercise.

But women have not done all this alone and unaided. The packers, canners and delicatessen folks have done a lot for them, to start with. And then it would be interesting to know how many of the mechanical washing machines, carpet sweepers, vacuum cleaners, kitchen cabinets and other chore-savers have been invented by men.

HARD LUCK
An Oklahoma woman who has reached the ripe age of 18 years and has two husbands says that she is through with men. They frequently talk about that way when the battle of life has gone harshly, but even this venerable soul may change her mind.

For this reason Col. Lowden called for the immediate formation of commodity market associations among all farmers.

The intention is to secure an intelligent control

SAVES MAN'S LIFE, OFFERED TEN CENTS

(Photo by Coffey)
Miss Mary Core

There is one winter visitor in this city who values his life at 10 cents. Some weeks ago a middle-aged swimmer was caught in the heavy breakers near the Venice pier. He shouted loudly for help, with the result that Mary Core, Venice woman life guard, plunged into the surf and saved him. Several hours later the swimmer returned to the beach and handed the fair Miss Core 10 cents.

Desirous of being prepared for future emergencies in case there might be a demand for change for a proffered sum, Miss Core obtained a coin-changing machine, which she now wears daily while performing her duties.

by Lieut. Eric H. Nelson, engineering officer of the night. All remaining doubt as to whether the flight will begin schedule was dissipated yesterday in an order issued at Washington by Gen. Patrick, head of the Army Air Service. The order states definitely that the departure will take off Monday morning unless weather conditions are such that this is impossible. Gen. Patrick, in his order, also christened the machines. They will bear the names of four large cities, Boston, Chicago, Seattle and New Orleans.

SACRAMENTO FIRST STOP

The first stop after leaving Los Angeles, Gen. Patrick announced, will be at Sacramento and the second at Eugene, Or. The third stop will be at Vancouver, Wash., and sometime between next Friday and the 24th inst. the planes will land in Seattle. Here the portraits will be placed on all the cruisers.

The greatest assemblage of aircraft in Southern California's history was witnessed at Clover Field yesterday. About noon seventeen of all types, including bombers, smoke screen and sky-writing airplanes were gathered at the field. They will all participate in the air circus there tomorrow afternoon.

Two Martin bombers from Kelly Field, the first piloted by Capt. Griffin, arrived at Clover Field in the morning. The second bomber arrived at the field at 10:30 a.m. after a forced landing at Columbia bus, N. M.

The entire Southland was invited to attend the circus during the day, by five planes from Clover Field which flew over virtually all Southern California scattering thousands of leaflets inviting everybody to come to the Clover Field Sunday.

Major Martin stated that a large number of the airplanes now assembled at Clover Field will accompany the three cruisers which will hop on Monday morning. The cruisers will be escorted as far as Seattle, he said. The third cruiser to be completed, he said, has been taken by Lieut. Wade to Rockwell Field for conversion test. It will be flown back today.

The air carnival will be preceded by a parade and exhibition drill by the One Hundred and Sixtieth Infantry, California National Guard, commanded by Col. Waller P. Story.

To guard against accidents during the day, 300 soldiers from Fort MacArthur will be assigned to patrol Clover Field, Lieut. Mosesley stated yesterday. It is expected that more than 100,000 persons will gather about Clover Field to witness the air circus.

The insignia for the four ships circling cruisers was selected last night. It was submitted by Capt. Douglas Aircraft Corporation, whose flying machines were constructed. This insignia bears the words "Air Service U.S.A." and below this line "World Flight."

EX-SENATOR COLE CONTINUES TO GAIN

HOPE FOR RECOVERY WITHIN FEW DAYS EXPRESSED BY PHYSICIANS

The condition of former United States Senator Cornelius Cole, confined in his Hollywood home following an attack of influenza, was reported as greatly improved yesterday. Although the statesman recently celebrated his 101st birthday, his physicians declared that with characteristic vigor he has conquered the illness, and hope for a complete recovery within a few days.

He was admitted to his home last December, and has been under the care of Dr. W. L. Lovell, a well-known physician.

Dr. Lovell, who has been recommended by Dr. George and Harry Lovell, the local doctors, and Dr. W. L. Lovell, the local physician, has been in constant attendance upon Senator Cole.

ROADS RENEW ARCADE FIGHT

Again Ask Franchise Due to Old Station Fire

Council Committee Refuses to be Stampeded

Sees No Objection to Joint Use as Emergency

Taking advantage of the recent fire at the old Salt Lake Railroad Station, the Southern Pacific and the Union Pacific railroad companies yesterday attempted to get through the City Council the consolidation plan to secure franchises for consolidating the passenger facilities of the two roads in the Southern Pacific Arcade Station.

There has been pending before the Council since October an application for a twenty-one-year franchise for track changes so as to permit this consolidation of manager terminal facilities at the Arcade Station, and this suddenly was revived yesterday by the railroads on the ground that the Union Pacific depot had burned down.

"Why not a twenty-one-year franchise and all the other matters, including grade-crossing elimination?" asked Councilman Allan, chairman of the Council's Public Utilities Committee, of Attorney A. S. Halsted of the Union Pacific. Mr. Halsted admitted that the Union Pacific passenger train could at once start using the Arcade Station as a guest of the Southern Pacific without asking the Council for any permit or franchise, but said that the Southern Pacific required something definite in return for this use of its terminal, and he presented the application for franchise to the Southern Pacific's freight traffic over the Union Pacific's tracks on the east side of the Los Angeles River. He said that this would reduce the freight service on Alameda street, though increasing the number of passenger trains on the street.

NOT STAMPEDE

"It looks to me like the railroads are trying to stampede the Council into giving them these franchises because of a fire at the Union Pacific Station," said Councilman Wilson, who said he refused to be stampeded.

The attorneys for the railroads plainly hoped for a favorable report in their application yesterday, as Mr. Halsted said. The Council showed that it intended to grant the application the Union Pacific passenger trains could begin to use the Arcade Station today. Councilman Allan said that as a temporary expedient to meet the joint use objection to the Union Pacific's passenger trains using the Southern Pacific depot, but he balked at granting the comprehensive twenty-one-year franchise for freight traffic.

City Attorney Stephens, who had objected in October to granting the applications for franchises filed by the companies, made a statement withdraws these objections on account of the emergency that had arisen, and said that full protection would be given the city so that the joint use of the Arcade Station by the two roads would not be used as an argument against the Plaza union station. The new application of the Union Pacific for the franchise reaffirms the company's previous stipulation that the transferring of the freight traffic from the Southern Pacific to the west side of the river and the joint use of the Arcade Station shall not be used by the roads as an argument against the Plaza union station.

The new application of the Union Pacific for the franchise reaffirms the company's previous stipulation that the transferring of the freight traffic from the Southern Pacific to the west side of the river and the joint use of the Arcade Station shall not be used by the roads as an argument against the Plaza union station.

ACTION POSTPONED

The Board of Public Utilities reported adversely in October when the two railroad companies presented their application for franchises based upon their joint use of the Arcade Station, and was awaiting the approving of the application at that time Deputy City Attorney Milton Bryan said to the board:

"The railroads can stipulate and agree and accept franchises setting forth that the joint use of the Arcade Station will not be used as an argument against the union station at the Plaza, but if the consolidation of passenger terminals is permitted to be authorized under twenty-one-year franchises, then it will be a fact that will speak for itself and cannot be ignored. The consolidation will be the only argument that the Plaza union station, which these railroads have been fighting for years."

The Council postponed further consideration of the matter until Monday morning.

TO CONTINUE DOLLEY QUIZ

Grand Jury Investigation in Dry Office to be Resumed Tuesday Morning

The Federal grand jury will convene next Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock to continue the investigation of the affairs of the Southern California prohibition headquarters during the time Harold H. Dolley was in charge, U. S. Atty. Burke announced yesterday.

During the regular weekly session of the jury yesterday the inquiry began the previous Friday as to the charges of irregularities that have been made against Dolley by persons who have been dismissed from the prohibition service. None of the men subpoenaed as witnesses was before the jury, however.

DOLLEY IN CITY

Dolley, chief of the Federal prohibition and force for the State, and F. R. Rutten, prohibition director for California, were both in the city yesterday. Dolley will remain here until after the grand jury has dismissed him as a witness, he said. According to U. S. Atty. Burke, the investigation will be taken up next Tuesday will continue until the matters in connection with Dolley's conduct of the Los Angeles office have been disposed of.

It is not likely that other witnesses will be subpoenaed, Mr. Burke said. Both Dolley and Rutten are prepared to testify. Others subpoenaed at the time they were arrested, who have yet testified, are Earl Miller and Fred Lloyd, former dry agents.

NEAL TRIED MONDAY

F. C. Neal, reported to be a leader among those who are charging irregularities against Dolley,

IDENTITY OF FUND DONOR TO BE TOLD

Local Business Man to Give $50,000 for Home for Revolution Sons

The mystery surrounding the identity of a prominent Los Angeles business man, who has pledged himself to head a subscription fund for the purpose of acquiring property and constructing a fireproof building for the Sons of the Revolution in the State of California with a donation of $50,000 will be dissipated Tuesday at a special luncheon of the society at the Alexandria.

The donor, who placed his offer with no restriction other than that a sufficient amount be pledged to secure property and erect a suitable building. According to Pierson W. Barnard, president of the society in Los Angeles business affairs, the owner of several downtown buildings and a member of the society.

Charles L. Egan of the firm of Capital and Labor to the Government," William B. Hunnewell, recently returned from a trip around the world, will speak on his visit in Europe to the King of Kao-Tut and Frank Weston, well-known banker of Michigan, will talk on Los Angeles. George E. Pomroy of Toledo, former General Secretary of the Sons of the Revolution, will speak on the work of the society throughout the country.

Every member of the organization is expected to be present at the Tuesday luncheon as plans for the inauguration of a campaign to raise the additional funds will be laid.

CHEMISTS HEAR NOTED AUTHORITY

Los Angeles is Seen as Center for Petroleum By-Product Industry

Los Angeles as an industrial center for synthetic chemical products from petroleum is the possibility pointed out by Dr. Harrison E. Howe of Washington, editor of Industrial and Engineering Chemistry, national organ for American commercial chemists. He addressed a large assemblage of the local section of the American Chemical Society last evening at the Mary Louise Cafe.

Although the visitor has held the fellowship only a short time, the journal he urged ahead into what is probably the first place among the world's publications in this field. Dr. and Mrs. Howe are at the Biltmore for the week.

In addition to the local chemist this week Dr. Howe emphasized how inadequate is the treatment of petroleum from the standpoint of chemical preparation of dyes, drugs, etc., not only here but also in eastern fields. In connection with the German reformed coal-tar benzol, worth about 25 cents a gallon, into preparations worth several dollars per pound, such as aspirin, metol, etc.

A preliminary showing of historical, without much development in Los Angeles, attracted the interest of the visiting editor. This material, not yet in the market locally, is being developed by experts in Colorado interests and local chemists. Except in Colorado there is no plant outside the famous royal German potters putting out first-grade heat-resistant porcelain.

DRUG EVILS TO BE TOLD IN PULPITS

City's Pastors to Pave Way for Week's Drive of Narcotic Association

Tomorrow from the pulpits of the Los Angeles churches there will issue a message against the peril of narcotics, this serving as a means for combating the association's campaign for memberships and support, which will be actively launched Monday, continuing throughout the week.

Independent church association's program of work, scheduled as a means of combatting the spread of the dope evil, has been given by the Church Federation of Southern California for the picnic reunion the 22nd inst. at Sycamore Grove Park. Through the county registers and headquarters it is easy to find old neighbors. This will be a brief program with speakers and leaders of the Protestant and Catholic churches of the city and by the Rt. Rev. Bishop John J. Cantwell, representing the Catholic churches of the diocese.

Many pastors in observance of the week's campaign activities will make the terrible menace of drug-using the basis for their Sunday sermons.

Under the direction of Capt. Richmond Pearson Hobson, president of the association, the campaign is sponsored by the church, and the campaign which is conducted here during the forthcoming week will serve as a means for placing in every home and giving to every school child a safeguarding knowledge of the deadly dope habit.

The campaign scheduled for the week of the 18th inst. will serve to finance this work through the dissemination of literature of enlightening nature and by other forms of education.

Guilt Admitted After Evidence is Given to Jury

Testimony sufficient to convince even the prisoner of his guilt was given yesterday in the trial of Vicente Marsiglia before Judge Shank and a jury in Superior Court.

Marsiglia was accused of first-degree robbery on three counts. He stoutly protested his innocence up to the time the prosecution finished its evidence, then he had a hurried conference with his lawyer.

"I plead guilty," said Marsiglia.

He waived time for sentence and was immediately sentenced to Folsom prison for from five years to life.

Evidence showed that while Marsiglia was robbing M. Yama at the Long Beach road January 9, Yama's father, G. Yama, signaled to passing motorists for help. H. C. Smith and G. L. Smith, brothers, stopped and Marsiglia robbed them, too.

BANDITS' FATE FORESEEN

First Degree Robbery Indictments of Lancaster Hold-up Trio Expected Tuesday

Indictment on charges of first-degree robbery are expected to be returned by the county grand jury on Tuesday against the three young Mexican bandits who held up and robbed the Antelope Valley Bank at Lancaster on Tuesday, last.

The facts in the case, it was stated, will be presented to the grand jury by Dep. Dist.-Atty. Bonner Richardson.

The three now under arrest, all of whom are said to have connections with the notorious Montezuma gang, were arrested Thursday night at Oaks Service Station, Mint Canyon.

The Coroner's jury, at an inquest at Lancaster, returned a verdict that Rocco Fernandez, who was shot and killed by F. C. McAdams, a Palmdale citizen, during the hold-up, died of his wounds. The coroner's inquest of the search for a posse, Mr. McAdams having been instructed by the Lancaster constable to aid in the search. The slaying was declared to be justifiable homicide.
